

STATE	COUNTY	TOWN OR VICINITY
DELAWARE	Sussex	Bethel - Facing south at end of village street 2p 1d
INDEX NUMBER	MONUMENT
DEL, 3. BETH, 1-	Ship-Carpenter's (Dowd) House
REPRESENTED IN NEGATIVE FILE	H.A.B.S. SURVEY NO. DEL-150	History - This 18th century house and its neighbor are known locally as "The Ship-Carpenters Houses." They were supposedly built by ship carpenters supported by the extensive river trade. Present owners - Dowd
PUBLISHED PHOTOGRAPHS
PUBLISHED DRAWINGS
		Description - Frame building, two

(over) ✓

story section and ~~one-and-a-half~~ one-and-a-half story section, gabled roofs, modern dormers, plan of older part typical of the period characterized by a "great room" with a closed, winding stairway beside a large fireplace, pine woodwork, typical detail.

Author of Card - Osmund R. Overby,
Architect, National Park Service, 143 South
Third Street, Philadelphia 6, Pa. - October 1960.